The Company covers personal property owned or used by the Named Insured while it is anywhere in the world. Coverage applies to the contents of the rental unit, including furniture, clothing, electronics, and household goods. The coverage limit for personal property is $30,000 unless a different amount is shown on the declarations schedule.

Certain categories of property carry special sublimits. Jewelry, watches, and furs are limited to $1,500 for loss by theft. Money, bank notes, and coins are limited to $200. Firearms are limited to $2,500 for loss by theft.

Section II - Personal Liability Coverage

Personal liability coverage protects the Named Insured if a claim is made or a suit is brought for bodily injury or property damage caused by an occurrence to which this coverage applies. The liability limit is $100,000 per occurrence. The Company will also pay reasonable medical expenses to others, up to $1,000 per person, for bodily injury occurring on the insured location.

Deductibles

A deductible of $500 applies to each covered loss under Section I. The deductible is the amount the Named Insured pays before the Company contributes toward a covered loss. No deductible applies to Section II liability claims.

Covered Perils

This policy covers direct physical loss to personal property caused by the following perils: fire or lightning; windstorm or hail; explosion; smoke; vandalism or malicious mischief; theft; water damage from plumbing, heating, or air conditioning systems; and freezing of those systems. Loss caused by any peril not listed is not covered.

Exclusions

The Company does not cover loss resulting from flood, earthquake, or other earth movement. Loss caused by war, nuclear hazard, or intentional acts of the Named Insured is excluded. Damage caused by wear and tear, deterioration, insects, or rodents is not covered. Business property used primarily for commercial purposes is excluded unless endorsed.

Premium Payment

The annual premium is payable in full at the start of the policy period, or in monthly installments under the Company's payment plan. The Company accepts payment by check, electronic funds transfer (EFT), debit card, and credit card. The Company does not accept cash payments by mail. Cash payments may only be made in person at an authorized Evergreen Mutual branch office. A late payment fee of $15 applies to installments not received by the due date.

Filing a Claim

In the event of a loss, the Named Insured must notify the Company as soon as reasonably possible. The Named Insured should protect the property from further damage, prepare an inventory of damaged or stolen property, and cooperate with the Company's investigation. Claims may be reported by phone or through the Company's online claims portal. The Company will acknowledge a claim within five business days of receipt.

Cancellation and Renewal

The Named Insured may cancel this policy at any time by notifying the Company. The Company may cancel the policy for nonpayment of premium with at least 10 days written notice, or for other reasons permitted by law with at least 30 days written notice. Unless cancelled, the policy renews automatically at the end of each policy period at the premium then in effect.
